

RHUMBLINE ADVISERS HIRES LISA SHEELER AS CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER AND GENERAL COUNSEL

It is with great pleasure that we announce Lisa Sheeler has joined our team as Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) and General Counsel at RhumbLine Advisers effective July 16, 2018. Lisa brings an extraordinary depth of knowledge in the implementation and management of compliance programs as well as 30 years of corporate legal experience to her new position at RhumbLine.

In this role, Lisa will lead RhumbLine's compliance program and provide in-house legal expertise as the firm's General Counsel. Drawing upon her extensive experience, Lisa will direct and implement strategies and policies to help RhumbLine manage risk and stay true to its values as the firm continues to grow. RhumbLine's previous CCO of four years, Jennifer Pilgrim, is transitioning to a part-time position within the firm's compliance group to focus on her young family. Lisa reports to our CEO, Wayne Owen.

Lisa comes to RhumbLine most recently from MFS Investment Management where she held the position of Vice President & Assistant General Counsel for the past 12 years. While there, Lisa supported the investment advisory and fund businesses while also acting as Legal Head of Institutional Distribution for U.S., Asian, European, Australian and Canadian businesses. Prior to that, Lisa was Vice President and Associate General Counsel for Fidelity Investments, where she supported Fidelity's U.S. and offshore funds, and products sold through intermediaries. Before joining Fidelity, Lisa spent seven years with Zurich Scudder Investments (Deutsche Asset Management) as a vice president and corporate attorney supervising outside law firms and compliance personnel. Lisa had begun her career in 1988 as an associate at Seward & Kissel LLP. She has a BS from Georgetown University and a Juris Doctor from Boston University School of Law.

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Lisa, and do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Lisa can be reached at LAS@indexmgr.com or (617) 345-0434.

As always, we would like to sincerely thank you for your business!
